

{loadposition user2}

Prague, the capital of the Czech Republic, is situated in the heart of Europe – approximately 600km from

It has an area of 496 km² and is home to 1,200,000 people.

The year 870, when Prague castle was established, is regarded as the beginning of the city's existence.

Prague's historical centre has an area of 866ha (Hradcany and Prague Castle, Mala Strana, the Old Town)

Since 1992 it has been listed by UNESCO as a world cultural heritage site.

Typical for Prague city centre are its winding lanes and buildings in every possible architectural style: Rococo,

Undulating topography gives Prague its inimitable beauty and its stunning panoramic views. Prague's main

Prague is one of nine European cities to hold the prestigious title European city of culture 2000 which it